

Jillian's News

May 2009

RECITAL CLASS PICTURES Begin Tuesday May 26th.

The schedule for the picture has been emailed previous. If you need another copy please check the website at www.JilliansDance.com. If you still need information please ask you dance teacher for clarification.

Studio Closed Monday May 25th MEMORIAL DAY.

Your 2009 Dance Recital fees included Four Tickets to the either Friday evening or Saturday afternoon Dance Recital. You may divide your tickets between shows or use all tickets for one show. If you need extra tickets they are available for an extra $5.00 per tickets. There are a limited number of seats for each show and shows have sold out in previous years. Therefore we request, please email or the call the studio with your preference as to what show you would like to designate your tickets.

Remember, all students are in both shows.

Costumes have arrived and are now being distributed. With each costume you will receive an Instruction List regarding how to wear any extra costume accessories, if they are to be included, how to wear your hair, and information regarding appropriate shoes and/or tights. Few costumes should need alterations. However, if need please make certain to have alterations completed prior to you class pictures.

STAGE PARENTS are needed for the recital. Whichever show you are not planning on viewing we ask interested individual to volunteer to be helpers at the other show. We are now taking sign ups for your child's class tables, back stage costume changers, stage prop personnel and other positions. Please speak with Dave or Jill and they will check available positions. Thanks for you support.

Email or call us if you have any questions.

Ms. Jill and David

dave@JilliansDance.com

www.JilliansDance.com